MOUNTAIN EVENTS

OPENING DAY- NOVEMBER 21

Skiing and snowboarding are back in action at Steamboat! Thanks to early season storms and prime snowmaking conditions the mountain is in great shape. Today we opened with 11 trails and two lifts on Friday there will be top-to-bottom terrain. All passes, including Ikon, Ikon Base and Steamboat-specific passes will be valid. Regular priced lift tickets will also be available for purchase. Keep updated on opening terrain at steamboat.com.

TIMBER & TORCH

New this season, Timber & Torch restaurant is the centerpiece of Gondola Square right at the base of the mountain. Timber & Torch features two indoor/outdoor bars, an outdoor heated patio and an exterior fireplace. Serving breakfast, lunch, happy hour and dinner daily. The bistro-inspired food, 24 beers on tap, craft cocktails and live music will fire up your evening. For more details visit steamboat.com/timberandtorch

TACO BEAST

Steamboat's on-mountain, roaming snowcat serving a variety of trail tacos (the resort's take on street tacos), esquites (Mexican street corn) and Mexican-style beer. Follow @SteamboatDining and #TacoBeastSteamboat on Instagram for the current Taco Beast location.

OUTLAW MOUNTAIN COASTER

The Outlaw Mountain Coaster is the longest coaster in North America at more than 6,280 linear feet. The track near Christie Peak Express descends more than 400 vertical feet, rises up to 40 feet above the ground, and features dips, waves, turns and 360-degree circles.
